

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

November 7, 2018

Stable View partners with Aiken Horse Park Foundation and View Point Dressage for 2019 Aiken Dressage Challenge Series

Both Stable View and the Aiken Horse Park Foundation recognize the importance of providing all-weather footing and quality infrastructure for today's discerning exhibitors. Together they welcome the opportunity to offer competitors a reason to remain in Aiken this coming winter to compete at both of these premier equestrian facilities for the second year.

Barry Olliff, owner of Stable View, states: "We believe that our dressage series has quickly become one of the preeminent dressage events on the calendar." The shows in the series were some of the most successful to date at Stable View, and one objective of the series is to continue the growth of Dressage in Aiken.
